

Are you an employed parent but feel you're not reaching your full potential?

Moray SWAP's In-Work Upskilling project offers Underemployed Parents support and funding to help you make the most of your skills and capabilities in the workplace.

This could include accredited qualifications, vocational training or industry recognised qualifications to support career advancement.

Throughout the project, you will receive guidance and support from a dedicated Employability Coordinator.
